But not any more! Introducing the newest arrival to the Magic Bullet family - the Baby Bullet! With the Baby Bullet System you can make and store a week's worth of fresh organic baby food in under five minutes, for less than three dollars!

Watch how the Baby Bullet makes fresh, healthy, organic, nutrient-rich baby food in an instant! Like this apple and plum puree, full of vitamins and antioxidants, made in just seven seconds!

And with the Baby Bullet it actually costs less to go organic - you'd pay up to seventy dollars a month for organic baby food from the store. But now you can have nutrient-rich organic carrot baby food for about twelve cents. And, unlike jarred baby food, the Baby Bullet only uses the freshest, healthiest ingredients.

For this delicious, preservative-free, six-second mango and banana puree, or this hearty green bean and rice dinner loaded with fiber, with NO added sugars or fibers. Now THAT'S organic!

And storing your fresh baby food is just as easy. Watch: Pour your puree into one of the Bullet's exclusive date dial storage cups - and it goes right in the fridge, for the freshest baby food at home or on the go.

TESTIMONIAL 1

You should try the Baby Bullet because it is a whole system that makes making your baby's natural organic baby food SO easy.

TESTIMONIAL 2

While I'm making food for my other two children, I'm making her food just the same - right then, right there.

TESTIMONIAL 3

She started demanding fresh food all the time; she no longer wanted to eat any of the jarred foods.

TESTIMONIAL 4

And the best part of it is that you have a little dial and you can put the date on it so you know when it's good until.

TESTIMONIAL 5

You NEED the Baby Bullet.

NARRATOR

Best of all, for a limited time, you can get your very own Baby Bullet Baby Care System FREE. That's right! Get the complete 22-piece System absolutely FREE! Details just ahead. But first, see why the Baby Bullet is America's number one baby shower gift, as Lindsay introduces us to the newest arrival to the Magic Bullet family - the Baby Bullet.

INT. LINDSAY'S HOME

Inside LINDSAY'S living room, guests have gathered for a baby shower as her pregnant sister JENNY opens one of her gifts. Among the female family and friends is one man, AL, who has been dragged to this event by his wife PEG, who holds a baby in her arms.

AUNT MARCIE

Oh, the baby's gonna love that, hon! Enjoy!

JENNY

Thank you Aunt Marcie.

AUNT MARCIE

So where's your gift?

LINDSAY

Oh, me? I'm waiting for a SPECIAL delivery.

Doorbell rings.

LINDSAY (CONT'D)

And it's just in time!

Deliveryman MICK enters.

MICK

Special delivery for Jenny! Special delivery for Jenny!

LINDSAY

Oh, come on in Mick! Just set it right down there on the counter.

GRANDMA

Nice package! Ha ha ha ha ha!

Lindsay rolls eyes.

MICK

Congratulations Jenny! Wait till you see this! Now, have fun today everybody!

LINDSAY

Come on guys! Come on in and take a look at this. Gather round. You need to check this out.

Guests move from living room and take seats around the kitchen counter.

I've been waiting to show you this all day! You remember the Magic Bullet, right?

GRANDMA

All right! Magic Bullet margaritas!

LINDSAY

Calm down Grandma! Well this is the Baby Bullet.

Various guests make noises of astonishment.

LINDSAY

The makers of the Magic Bullet have redesigned the blade, the motor, and the size into the perfect combination for making perfect purees, for the best baby food-making system you've EVER seen! Here, let me show you! Aunt Marcie, can you grab me some of that mango and banana from the fruit salad? And Mom, can you grab me a little bit of that chicken and a spoonful of rice? And while you guys are doing that, I've got my peas here, all ready to go! The peas go right in the cup here with just a little bit of water..

ASIAN GUEST

Oh my gosh, that has a FACE on it! That is so cute!

LINDSAY

I just pop on the blade - and watch: one, two, three, four, five, six, seven seconds. This is the perfect pea puree. For the freshest, smoothest baby food! Now YOU try to get THAT from a jar! Now, you guys, I'm going to put in some mango and banana. These flavors are great together - my babies love them. Now, as you can see, it doesn't take long! Look: the mango and banana are being blended down to the smoothest puree. And you want to know what's in here? Mango and banana! That's it. No added sugar, no fillers, no preservatives - just the fruit and all the natural nutrition that your baby needs, made fresh in less than eight seconds. But you won't feed your babies just veggies and fruit - so here's a little bit of this chicken and just a spoonful of rice. This makes a hearty, delicious dinner for baby that is loaded with protein, in less than nine seconds. Fresh, homemade baby food is THIS EASY!

PEG

This is absolutely perfect. How did it do that?

LINDSAY

It's the brand-new Baby Blend Blade. It blends all of your baby's favorite foods down to the perfect consistency. Just think about it: I've made a seven-second perfect pea puree, eight-second vitamin-rich mango and banana baby food, and nine-second protein-packed chicken and rice puree - with no added sugar, no fillers, and no preservatives.

JENNY

Okay, hold on a minute - WHAT is this?

LINDSAY

This is the brand-new Baby Bullet Baby Care System. And with it you can make and store a week's worth of baby food in under five minutes - for less than three dollars. And three dollars gets you what? Two or three jars of baby food at the store?

PEG

You're not kidding! We spend a FORTUNE on jarred baby food EVERY week!

JENNY

How much does a baby eat?

PEG

By the time our baby started on solid food, we went through forty-eight ounces of food a week! That's almost twenty jars - and that's just to start. They need more as they grow!

WOMAN 2

(whispering)

What, a little baby?

COMMERCIAL - II

TESTIMONIAL 1

I was buying jarred food constantly and trying to keep a variety of foods, so I would go to all these different stores and spend all this money. With the Baby Bullet I just go and buy lots of organic vegetables - which is not that expensive.

TESTIMONIAL 2

For me, as a mom, though, I want to save money, I want it to be fresh, I want it to be healthy. And so with the Baby Bullet, a pound of sweet potatoes make - maybe it's even a dollar - would make you a week's worth of baby food, versus one serving of the organic jarred baby food which would cost you a couple of bucks and you only get one serving out of it.

TESTIMONIAL 3

I felt like the Baby Bullet was great with the Baby Blend Blade because it incorporated the protein of the meat with vegetables really nicely, pureed everything really smoothly, really quickly, and it came out being a nice texture that she loved to eat.

TESTIMONIAL 4

With the Baby Bullet I'm able to feed my babies the freshest food possible - and it's really important to me because I know that that's where the nutrition lies. If it's been sitting on a shelf, or it's been boiled, and after that it's preserved to be able to sit on a shelf, it's probably not very nutritious.

TESTIMONIAL 5

When I make fresh food with the Baby Bullet, I know exactly what's going into it. I know that it's clean, I know there are no pesticides. I KNOW - I was right there! I cleaned it, I made it myself. It's obviously the best thing I can give him.

INT. LINDSAY'S HOME

MOM

You said you could make and store a week's worth of food in less than five minutes - and you're running out of time here!

LINDSAY

Well, Mom, to make a week's worth of baby food, we're going to need THIS! This is the Baby Bullet Batch Bowl - and with it we can puree entire batches of baby food AND make more to store all in just seconds!

PEG

That's adorable!

LINDSAY

First, I'm gonna add just a splash of water - and then I can fit this ENTIRE sweet potato in here. And now I just pop on the lid, and let the Baby Bullet do the work. Sweet potato is another one of my baby's favorite flavors!

PEG

In our house, a sweet potato is our BFF - baby's favorite food! - and we go through tons of it!

LINDSAY

You would buy jars and jars of sweet potato baby food. But now look! We just made a week's worth of sweet potato baby food in just seconds. This one sweet potato makes almost twenty ounces of baby food. That's equal to eight jars of baby food that you'd buy from the store! And this sweet potato cost me just over a dollar.

AL

Woo! No more trips to the store!

PEG

Well, not for baby food anyway!

The guests laugh mockingly at Al.

LINDSAY

So we've made all this fresh, delicious baby food for the week, and now we've got to store it - which brings me to my favorite part of the Baby Bullet System! You guys are going to go CRAZY for these things! Everyone grab one!

ASIAN GUEST

Oh my gosh! This has a little face on it too - that's SO CUTE!

PEG

This IS cute! I've never seen ANYTHING like this before.

GRANDMA

Are we doing shots?

LINDSAY

No! Grandma! These are the Baby Blend storage cups. So, each one of you grab one of these baby foods that we've just made - there you go - and then just spoon the food into the storage cup. Now, we all store our food in the fridge, right?

ALL

Yes.

LINDSAY

Problem is, when we go back to get it a day or two, or even a week later, we don't remember when we put it in! Which means we don't know how fresh it is. But not with the Baby Bullet System. You guys, look at this. This is the Baby Bullet's exclusive date dial feature. Now for the cool part! So, after you've put the food into the storage cup, just twist the dial to today's date. Now you instantly have your "made on" date. And your storage cup can go right into the fridge!

PEG

This is going to save me a fortune!

LINDSAY

Not only do you know EXACTLY what's in your baby's food, but you know EXACTLY when it was made - so you always know how fresh it is. But how fresh is THIS?

Lindsay holds up jar of commercial baby food.

Just think about it: when you feed your baby food from a jar, this food could be older than your baby!

JENNY

Oh, that is scary!

ASIAN GUEST

But THIS is cool - your own "made on" date.

MOM

(holding a Baby Bullet storage cup)

And I suppose you're going to put all that in one of these?

LINDSAY

No, Mom, it won't fit in there. But it WILL fit in here! This is the Baby Bullet's batch tray. And it's big enough to store entire batches of fresh baby food in these easy-access, single serving cups.

MOM

Oh no! All THAT food won't last in the fridge for more than a week!

LINDSAY

I know, Mom! But here's the cool part: pop on this stay-fresh seal-and-store lid. It snaps to seal tight. And now our entire batch of sweet potato baby food can go in the freezer. And it'll stay fresh up to a month. And just like the rest of the Baby Bullet System, it's safe, non-toxic, and BPA-free

PEG

That's great! I was gonna ask you about that.

LINDSAY

Like I told you, this brand-new Baby Bullet System, with the specially-designed Baby Blend Blade, will make and store fresh baby food up to ten times cheaper, ten times faster, and ten times healthier than any store-bought baby food in a jar.

PEG

You know what? This is great! Al, you gotta get me that!

AL

(starts to walk away)

Sure, whatever you say dear!

JENNY

(stopping Al)

This is my baby shower - and THIS Baby Bullet is mine!

LINDSAY

Okay Sis, come over here and take it for a spin - because you're going to be doing this soon enough!

JENNY

It's perfect for me...

TESTIMONIAL 1

I was actually intending to feed my baby with jarred baby food. I mean, I always thought that it would be really NICE to make my own baby food, but I just thought it was going to be a difficult process and one that I just like didn't have time for. But with the Baby Bullet it's just so convenient to use, and the consistency of the Baby Bullet food, with the blade, was perfect every time.

TESTIMONIAL 2

I have a very hectic schedule. I do have my fourteen-year-old, I do have my seven-year-old; we do have track meets, we do have play dates - we have ALL that stuff! And so with the Baby Bullet it makes it really easy to create that baby food that I want for my baby. I've made homemade spaghetti, plopped it in there for the baby, grounded it up a little bit, made it as thick as I wanted to, and served it - and we had spaghetti, all of us together at the table.

TESTIMONIAL 3

When I make my baby's food with the Baby Bullet, I can turn the little dial; I know exactly what day it was made, whether I'm keeping it in the fridge for a couple of days or freezing it for thirty days - I KNOW, there's no mystery. With the canned or the jarred baby food from the store, it says when to use it by - which is forever, you know - but when was it made? No matter how good the brand is, no matter how it's all organic - it's made in a factory. Not every single person who works in that factory loves my baby like I do!

TESTIMONIAL 4

The Baby Bullet is especially important to me and my family because I just LOVE knowing that he's getting the freshest fruits and vegetables. When you're giving your baby fresh baby food, you're giving your child the opportunity to be healthy. And to me that's not an option - that is my job as a parent.

ANDREW FIRESTONE

My name's Andrew Firestone - and most of America knows me as The Bachelor. But in fact I'm married and have a little boy and one more on the way, so I'm no longer The Bachelor.

IVANA FIRESTONE

The Baby Bullet's been with us since Brooks was six months old. He's eighteen months now - and it's grown with us every step of the way. And now, with a new baby on the way, it's gonna start all over again. When Brooks was little we started off with purees. As he grew up, we ended up making more chunky food, more consistency in his food. So when he wanted to feed himself we knew that everything that he needed was in that chunk of food that he needed. With jarred food I really didn't know what I was getting, what preservatives were in the food, or additives - and I really wanted to be in control of what my baby was eating.

ANDREW FIRESTONE

The Baby Bullet has a date dial system, so you know exactly when the food was made. I mean, compare that to a jar of baby food - and they're just telling you when it's going to go bad by. And I want to know when it was made; I want to know, you know, what products are going in and when it was actually made. And with the date dial system on the Baby Bullet you know exactly when it was made and you know that it's fresh. This is the reason that you HAVE the Baby Bullet, right here - for the baby. And you know, we feel so blessed to have a happy, healthy baby boy - and I think that part of that can be attributed to the fact that we use the Baby Bullet and that, you know, at this age we're giving him all the fruits and vegetables and nutrients he needs to grow up healthy. He wants to grow up big and strong! How strong are you? How strong are you? Ahhh! How big're you gonna be some day? That's it!

IVANA FIRESTONE

So big!

ANDREW FIRESTONE

Yeah, we wanna make sure we give him the right stuff.
