EXT. CAMPSITE - MORNING

Surrounded by tents, several campers sit next to each other at a picnic table: Bald, rotund BERMAN; blonde TINA; DINO, Tina's dim-witted partner; BETTY and BARNEY, a wife and husband. Their hosts, MICK and MIMI, walk toward them from the other side of the table.

BERMAN

Hey, where were you, guys?

MICK

We got up early this morning and we hiked to that mountain over there.

MIMI

Oh and that one, too!

MICK

And man, am I getting hungry? You fancy a smoothie?

MIMI

Oh, absolutely! Who else is in for a fresh fruit smoothie?

BERMAN

(cynically)

What are you going to make your smoothie with? Your "Magic Bullet"?

MICK

As a matter of fact, Berman, guess what? I am.

BERMAN

We're in the middle of the woods. Where are you going to plug that thing in?

MIMI

Okay. Who wants, what? I've got bananas, I've got all kinds of berries.

BARNEY

Hey Mick, I think you're going to have a problem.

MICK

No problem at all. You know what, we've got some protein powder here, as well. You can have a protein shake if you like.

DINO

(to Tina)

I don't understand. That's an electrical appliance.

TINA

Just let them go.

BARNEY

Strawberry and banana, I guess, but--

MICK

If strawberry and banana is what you want, Barney, that's what you'll get. There goes a couple of strawberries, I'm going to pop in a little piece of banana. You wanted a protein shake so in goes the protein powder.

DINO

Yeah, sure. Make that. But where are you going to--

MICK

And then I'm going to pour in some orange juice, and then I'm going to put in there a handful of ice, and then I'm going to pop on the blade, give it a quick spin, and then --

BERMAN

And then what?

MICK

And then, all it takes is 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 seconds, and take a look at this. You've got a delicious mixed berry smoothie. What about that?

DINO

(amazed)

Whoa. That is magic!

MICK

It's the Magic Bullet. Only better.

MIMI

That's right. It's the Magic Bullet To Go.

MICK

It's the Magic Bullet that you can use absolutely anywhere. Because you see this thing at the bottom? This is a heavy duty, rechargeable battery pack.

MIMI

So now you can do any job.

MICK

Anywhere!

MIMI

In 10 seconds or less.

MICK

So, that means you can have a mixed berry smoothie right here in the middle of the woods. There you go, Barney. Now what about a fancy omelette by the campsite?

MIMI

What would you like in your omelette, Dino?

Dino looks around, confused.

TINA

He likes a Denver omelette.

MIMI

Okay. We'll then, I'm going to start with a couple of eggs, some ham, a little bit of onion?

TINA

Yes, onion's fine.

MIMI

Okay, great. And then, we're going to put in some tomato, cheese, Dino?

DINO

(with a grin)

Cheese.

MIMI

Yeah, cheese. I thought so. Okay now, so I'm going to twist on the blade, and watch this, you guys, in just 3 seconds, I'm chopping the ham and veggies, I'm grating the cheese, and I'm whipping the eggs. And just like that. The machine that just made a wonderful smoothie for Barney out here in the woods, has now made a Denver omelette for you, Dino. Now, I'm just going to pop this on the camp stove to cook for a couple of minutes and we're good to go.

BERMAN

Can that thing make me a decent cup of coffee?

MIMI

Absolutely. I'm just going to grab some of these fresh coffee beans here, and twist on the blade. And watch this you guys. Now your cordless food processor becomes a cordless coffee grinder. And in 3, 2, 1, we're done. Now you've got freshly ground coffee. Check it out. Look at that, you guys.

BARNEY

Fresh ground coffee in the middle of nowhere? Now that's pretty cool.

MIMI

Isn't that fabulous? Now, I'm just going to pour it in the coffee pot here.

BERMAN

(grabs a different coffee pot)

Now, we can dump out this one--

MICK

Oh, there's no need for that, Berman. Why don't you try this? Why don't you just pour a little bit of that coffee into the tall bullet cup, to that I'm just going to add a little bit of ice, watch this. You ready? In goes a splash of chocolate syrup. To that, I'm going to add a little splash of milk. Wait till you see this. On goes the cross blade, over to the bullet base, and in 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, in 8 seconds, look at that, you've got a delicious, frozen mocha coffee drink. Look at that. Just like the ones that you get on the fancy coffee shops. Here Berman, give that a try now.

BERMAN

For campfire coffee, that's pretty darn good.

MIMI

And here you go, Dino, a piping hot Denver omelette. Look at that.

With a cigarette dangling from her mouth, frumpy old HAZEL suddenly emerges from a tent, walking with a strange gait.

HAZEL

Omelette? That's not camping food! Flapjacks. Now, that's a hearty breakfast.

MIMI

Hazel? When did you get here?

MICK

(confused)

Did you just...? Which...?

Hazel hands Berman a pair of socks and pats him on the back.

HAZEL

Thanks for the socks, big boy.

ALL

(in disgust)

Ewwwwwwwwwwwwww!

HAZEL

(takes a seat between Tina and Berman)

Move it, sweetheart.

MIMI

Well, Hazel, I know that you like your pancakes with banana and pecans.

HAZEL

You remember.

MICK

And Tina, I know that you like your pancakes with fresh blueberries, so I went out this morning and I picked some for you.

TINA

Thank you.

MICK

Ready?

MIMI

You know you guys, it doesn't take any more time or trouble to make 2 or 3 different kinds of pancakes than it does to make one.

MICK

So that way, you see, everybody gets exactly what they want.

HAZEL

Look at that. Impressive.

BETTY

Wait a second. How much longer are these things going to last?

MICK

Well, I charged this long life battery for only 2 hours the day before we came here. And we're going to get about 50 uses out of it before we need to charge it again. So it's easily going to last the whole weekend.

MIMI

And even with this powerful battery attached, the Magic Bullet To Go is so compact that you can take it with you wherever you go. So now you can do any job...

MICK

Anywhere.

MIMI

In 10 seconds or less.

MICK

So whether you're like us out here in the middle of nowhere, or whether you're at home in your own kitchen, this is really something that you're going to use every single day of the week.

BETTY

Come on.

TINA

If you cook at all, this makes the worst job a piece of cake.

BETTY

Like what?

MICK

Well, what's the worst job in the kitchen?

MIMI

And if you're like Mick, almost every meal starts with it.

BETTY

Chopping garlic.

HAZEL

Right.

BARNEY

Now, how would you know? She always makes me chop it. I hate it.

MICK

Well, Barney. It's not miserable anymore. Watch this. Just toss the garlic into the bullet, on goes the blade, over to the bullet base, and just press down for 1, 2, 3 seconds.

MIMI

And in less time it takes to get a cutting board and a knife.

MICK

Look at this.

MIMI

You've got freshly chopped garlic. Isn't that perfect?

HAZEL

It is perfect.

MIMI

Look at that, you guys. No mess. No stink. Try doing that with a knife.

BARNEY

That's actually pretty cool. But what about onions? Cause she makes me chop those too. I think she just likes to see me cry.

MIMI

(sympathetically)

Ooooooh. Well, let's see. I'm going to take a couple of these onions right here. Twist on the blade, and let's see. We've got 1, 2, 3 seconds. And look at that, you guys. Without any tears. Perfectly chopped onions.

MICK

Now you know what you do now, don't you? Over to the sauté pan, just pop that in there. Look at that. Now to that, I'm going to add some ground beef, then I'm going to add some tomato sauce along with some beans, then I'm going to add some more beans.

(MORE)

MICK (CONTINUED)

And don't forget, you know I like my food spicy, so I'm just going to put a little bit of chili powder on there as well and then, we're going to mix it all together, and I'm going to let this cook for a couple of minutes. So, real soon, we're going to have some of my famous, three bean Texas chili prepared in less than 2 minutes.

BETTY

Wow. I just might use that everyday.

MIMI

For every meal. How about a quick lunch made from leftovers? I've got some barbeque chicken here from last night's supper.

MICK

And to that I'm just going to add a little bit of onion, jalapeño, couple of pieces of cheese, on goes the cross blade, don't forget, it just takes a second to put on, over to the bullet base and in 1, 2, 3 seconds, I've chopped the chicken and I've grated the cheese. And now I'm just going to spread that between these two tortillas. Look at that. Look how great that looks.

MIMI

And now, I'm just going to top it off with another tortilla, and then slip it on the grill here to cook for a few minutes. And while that is working, I'm going to whip up a quick sandwich spread. Who likes egg salad? That's what I thought.

All guests express enthusiasm for egg salad.

MICK

You all do.

MIMI

So, I'm going to start with a couple of hard boiled eggs, add a squeeze of Mayo, a squirt of mustard, and a couple onions, and a little bit of fresh ground pepper.

(MORE)

MIMI (CONTINUED)

Now I'm going to twist on the blade and watch this, you guys. In 3 quick pulses, 1, 2, 3, I've chopped the eggs, diced the onions, and mixed all the ingredients together.

MICK

And viola, just like that! We've got a delicious egg salad sandwich, look at that, made from scratch in about 3 seconds, right here in the middle of nowhere.

MIMI

And check this out, you guys. A piping hot, chicken quesadilla made in just 3 seconds.

MICK

Now, don't be shy. There's enough for everybody. Come on. Have a go.

The guests eagerly pounce on the food.

MIMI

Dig in, guys, dig in. Yeah, there, you go, there you go.

MICK

Hey! Wait till you taste this because guess what, folks? Chili's done.

MIMI

Oh, that smells good, Mick. Now we're just going to pour the chili onto these tortilla chips here. Look at that. Isn't that great?

MICK

Ah, ah, ah. I'm not done yet, though. Because I'm just going to take a few pieces of cheese, toss them in the bullet, toss on the cross blade, over to the bullet base, and in 1, 2, 3 seconds, we've got freshly grated cheese. Now, what I'm going to do, I'm just going to pour it over the chili, and look at that. We've got Chili Nachos. Now, what about that for a delicious, fast and easy family meal?

MIMI

Let's save room for dessert, guys.

DINO

Dessert? You're kidding.

MICK and MIMI

No.

MICK

Watch this. I'm just going to take a little bit of cream from this morning's coffee, I'm going to add a couple of spoonfuls of chocolate syrup, and now, I'm going to use the flat blade, ok? That's the one that used for whipping and grinding. Give it a quick spin, on to the Bullet To Go base and twist it on. Now, if you've got 6 seconds, then you've got plenty of time to whip up a delicious dessert. Hear that? That's the Bullet To Go telling you that dessert is done. And take a look at that. It's light, it's fluffy, it tastes delicious, and you saw it made right in front of your eyes in 6 seconds.

MIMI

So, Dino, why don't you go ahead and try that?

DINO

Wow! Who would've thought you could have mousse in the woods?

MICK

Just think, in a matter of minutes, we've made breakfast, made 2 completely different types of pancakes, made a 3 second lunch, and, look, made enough snacks for the entire family.

MIMI

And even a gourmet dessert.

MICK

All made in what? The last 10 minutes or so?

MIMI

And all out here in the middle of the woods.

MICK

The Magic Bullet To Go really is the ultimate kitchen appliance that isn't stuck in the kitchen. In fact, it goes anywhere you go and will do any job...

MICK and MIMI

Anywhere.

MICK

So now, you can take it to the beach.

Everyone heads off to the beach.

On the sands of a beach, Mick and Mimi stand behind a bar as their guests sit on stools on the other side.

MICK

Are you ready, guys? Mick and Mimi's famous 15 minute party. Now I'm going to get this party started by putting in a little bit of onion in there. You know me, I've got to have a bit of garlic in everything. Five or six of these cherry tomatoes, I'm just going to throw them right in there, a little bit of jalapeño, a touch of cilantro, now don't forget the blade: only takes a second to put on. Over to the bullet base. And in 1, 2, 3 seconds...

HAZEL

Look at that.

MICK

And look at that. And as fast as you can say, "Bob's your uncle, Fanny's your aunt."

MIMI

Fresh, delicious salsa made from scratch at the beach. And we didn't even take out a knife.

BERMAN

Hands off, that's mine.

MIMI

Oh, Berman, it's all yours. Hey, you guys, do you know what else a party needs?

HAZEL

What's that?

MIMI

Dips!

DINO

Oh, oh, oh! How about some of that, uh, the green junk?

MIMI

Guacamole?

DINO

Yeah!

MIMI

Okay. No problem. So, I'm just going to start with some of this avocado right here, does that look good? And I'm a throw in these cherry tomatoes, umm, a little bit of jalapeño, a little bit of cilantro, and for Mick, of course..

EVERYONE

Garlic!

MIMI

That's right. Now I'm going to twist on the cross blade, and watch this you guys. 1, 2, 3 seconds, look at that you guys, you ready? I have got, look at that, fresh, delicious, guacamole.
